Notes From the Editors – July 2022

Summer Hours at the Women's Center

While the center is not open for walk ins during June, July and August we are open by appointment. If you would like to drop by, please call 702-345-4088 to schedule at time. We are also open each Wednesday in July from 11AM to 2PM for pick up and drop off of entries for the Decorate Saxon the Suffrage Cat Contest.

We will return to regular hours starting Tuesday September 6 from 11 AM to 3 PM, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. Classes will continue in the summer on a limited basis. Please check this month's calendar to see class availability or contact the instructor for details.

June Events

While June is usually a quiet month in Mesquite, the Women's Center was bustling with activity from our members and the groups who use our facility.

The Virgin Valley Artists Group did two podcasts in June; two of the Desert Dames Bunco groups meet here monthly; the Morning Rotary held a special orientation meeting in June; RAISE Mesquite put on a Painting class; and the Mesquite Showgirls conducted two orientation classes for new members. The Mesquite Outdoor Group and the Writer's Critique Group also meet here, as well as two new groups that started in June; the Wondering Words Book Club and the Consciousness Group, which is currently studying the book, Biology of Belief.

Third Annual Decorate Saxon the Suffrage Cat Contest

Our summer activity each year is the Decorate Saxon contest. It is open to kids of all ages and adults. You can pick up a Saxon cut out at the Women's Center and decorate it any way you like, at home, with friends, with help from parents or grandparents, or as a single entry, or a group entry. The cats can be decorated any way the artist chooses, decorating one side of the form, or if you can't decide between two choices, decorate both sides!

You can decorate Saxon as one of their pets, or a cat from a book or a movie, as a historical figure portrayed as a cat, or as the original Saxon, in honor of Women's Suffrage. Your Saxon can have items added to it, like a tail, a hat, or any other items that bring out your theme.

A new add this year will be group entries from the Rotary Club, the Mesquite Showgirls and the Mesa Valley Estates Memory Care Unit. If your group would like to decorate a Saxon Cat, please stop by the Women's Center on Wednesday between 11AM and 3PM to pick up your entry.

And remember time is getting short. The last day to submit your entry is July 29! The cats will be on exhibit at the Fine Arts Center during the first week of August. Check out the cats and vote for your favorite cat for the "People's Choice" award. Winners will be announced Monday August 8 (International Cat Day) at the Fine Arts Center, at a reception from 4PM to 6 PM.

Three notable women have been in the news recently, each one playing a prominent role in shaping world events. Here is a little information on each, starting with: Ursula von der Leyen, President of the European Commission; second: Madgalena Andersson, Prime Minister of Sweden; and third: Sanna Marin, Prime Minister of Finland.

Each woman has been strategically involved in decisions affecting peace and security at a world level: Ursula in forging a European Union consensus that could bring Ukraine, Europe's second largest country into the European Union; and Magdalena and Sanna, who have each successfully led the charge to reverse their country's traditional positions of neutrality, and apply for membership in NATO.

Ursula Gertrud von der Leyen was born October 8, 1958 in Brussels and grew up in a bilingual household speaking German and French. She studied at the London School of Economics in the late 1970s, under the name of Rose Ladson, honoring her great-grandmother from Charleston, South Carolina. Continuing her studies, Ursula graduated as a physician from the Hannover Medical School in 1987, specializing in women's health, and married a fellow physician.

She spent most of the 1990s as a housewife raising seven children, living for four years in California before returning to Germany in 1996, where she ultimately got involved in politics.

She served as a state level cabinet minister from 2003 to 2005, then served at federal level as minister of family affairs and youth from 2005 to 2009, then minister of labor and social affairs from 2009 to 2013, and minister of defense from 2013 to 2019. She was the first woman to serve in that capacity.

Ursula was elected President of the European Commission in July 2019 and is in Time's "100 Most Influential People of 2020."

Magdalena Andersson was born January 23, 1967 in Stockholm. She was an athlete and top student in high school, and earned a master's degree from the Stockholm School of Economics in 1992.

Andersson married an economics professor in 1997. As an outdoor family with two children, they enjoy hiking, kayaking and mountain climbing. She served as a political advisor to Sweden's Prime Minister from 1996 to 1998 and Director of Planning from 1998 to 2004. She served as Ministry of Finance Secretary of State from 2004 to 2006, and then Chief Director of the Swedish Tax Agency until 2012. She served as Minister for Finance until 2020.

Andersson was elected chair of the International Monetary and Financial Committee, the first woman to hold that position. In 2021, Andersson became Sweden's first female Prime Minister.

Sanna Mirella Marin was born November 16, 1985 in Helsinki She had a challenging childhood and worked in a bakery and as a cashier to go to school, earning a master's in Administrative Science from the University of Tampere, the first person in her family to attend a university. Marin is married with one daughter.

Marin was elected to City Council in 2012 and served as council chair from 2013 to 2017. In 2015, she was elected Member of the Finnish Parliament, becoming Minister of Transport and Communications in 2019.

In August 2020, at age 34, she became Finland's youngest-ever Prime Minister, and the third female head of government in Finland.

Wishing you all a wonderful summer, wherever your travels take you.

Jean Watkins

President

The Saxon Roadster

A Horseless Carriage that Made History

It was 1916 and Alice Snitjer Burke, 41, had spunk. Added to her mechanical ability was Alice's passion for a cause - women getting the right to vote. She was the perfect person to break new ground, as part of the first woman suffrage team to drive across the United States and back, when roads were indistinguishable from dirt paths and a revolution raged along the southern border, raising public awareness and gaining support for the 19th Amendment.

Alice and her companion Nell Richardson spread the word on a 10,700 mile journey that lasted 178 days. They visited 125 cities in a two-seater Saxon roadster, forging through ruts and mud, streams and snowstorms, bullets, deserts and protesters. Alice drove the car and handled maintenance and repairs, while Nell cooked and handled the paperwork.

The Saxon Motor Car Company backed this historic journey by donating the car and parts for this brave duo's trip. And they kept the public aware of the dynamic duo's daily progress, to show the reliability and value of their Saxon Roadster.

The surprisingly large load in their little Saxon Roadster included a complete camping outfit including a stove, a sewing machine and typewriter, plus enough extra parts to almost build a new car, and twenty dresses each for Alice and Nell, ten shirtwaists apiece, two raincoats, two heavy coats, two sweaters and a lot of literature which was distributed along the route.

First Degree Reiki

Become a First Degree Reiki practitioner. Learn the hands-on method of healing you can use on yourself, others, animals and plants. The Reiki initiation will “open you” to experience healing energy coming through your hands.

First Degree Reiki is an empowering class. A perfect educational experience for anyone wanting to expand their healing skills such as massage therapist's or becoming a healing practitioner.

What is Reiki?

Reiki, pronounced ("ray key"), translates as "the breath of the soul" or "universal life force energy"; it is the energy of the spirit or the fuel that provides life to a human being. As a hands-on treatment form, this Japanese healing art passes a large, warm current of Vital Life Force through the hands of the practitioner into the person being treated. This Life Force fortifies and balances the basic constitution, wholeness and function of the individual being treated. Reiki is life energy – the actual force that keeps life going.

How is Reiki done?

As you lie or sit, fully clothed, the Reiki practitioner places his/her hands on the distressed part of your body. The Reiki touch is gentle and still. Reiki is applied by a practitioner who has been trained (initiated) in using and transmitting healing energy. During the Reiki training, students are taught specific uses of Reiki and where to position their hands on the body following a standard form of 12 basic positions and several axillary positions. A full treatment is approximately 1 1/2 hours.

What to Expect During Treatment:

You may feel a sensation of deep heat, cold or tingling in your body where the Reiki practitioner has placed his/her hands. You may feel a mild sense of relaxation or nothing at all.

Each person experiences Reiki in a different way depending on what their body needs. Most people find Reiki is deeply calming and relaxing. Your breathing may slow, as in a peaceful rest; pain and swelling may be reduced;

Who is Reiki For?

Everyone can benefit from a Reiki treatment whether they are ill or not. A strong focus of this class is self-treatment. Reiki treats the body, therapeutically, and seems to be effective for:

- Pain, inflammation & swelling
- Breathing problems
- Heart, stroke
- Blood pressure problems
- Anxiety and stress
- Depression
- Menstrual cramps
- Cuts and bruises
- Headaches
- Seizures
- Cancer support
- Chemotherapy
- HIV and AIDS
- Hospice patients
- Pre & post operative stress/pain
- Trauma and shock
- Ear infections
- Hepatitis C

About the Instructor

Kim Erickson has practiced and shared Reiki for over a 20 years as a Usui Reiki Master. She holds a B.S. in Vocational Education, and specialized in Education, Training and Development from SIU-C. Kim is a dedicated student and teacher of the healing arts; she has also studied Therapeutic Touch, Polarity Therapy and earth energy chakra healing to list a few modalities. Kim participated in Re-evaluation Counseling for 15 years. She also trained in Jikiden Reiki in the first two levels since 2007—this is the Eastern form of Reiki from Japan.

Kim has been involved as a professional Reiki therapist in an NIH Reiki study and presented Reiki at Chemical Dependency and Human Service conferences, the Community Breast Cancer Center and taught First Degree Reiki for 10 years at local community colleges in Washington State. She has spoken to MENSA groups and extension site University health classes. She has also presented Reiki information and healing demonstration to several college students in the Paramedic, Nursing, Human Services and Police Academy fields.

In 2004, Kim completed a 4-year program at the North West School of Healing in Redmond, WA. In 2007, Kim began her journey training with the Modern Mystery School and she is currently taking a break with her recent relocation to Mesquite, Nevada.

Kim teaches Western Reiki and has been a member of The Reiki Alliance. Through this training, your lineage will be: Mikao Usui, Chujiro Hayashi, Hawayo Takata, Paul Mitchell – initiated in 1979, Kim Erickson (Reiki I & II); Phyllis Lei Furumoto – initiated in 1979, Norma Jean Young, Kim Erickson (Reiki mastery) initiated in 1996, _____ (you).
